

---

NOTES: Eighteen-year coordinator of NEC officials Edgar Cartotta, a Spiro Center regular, suffered a heart attack while sitting in the stands late in the game with NEC observer of officials Bert Levinson. Cartotta was administered to by two off-duty Staten Island court officers, John Stranberg and Frank Casiano, who brought their St. John Lutheran CYO basketball team to watch the Seahawks and play at halftime. The two officers performed CPR and used a defibrillator to resuscitate the man, who was conscious before being taken via ambulance by EMT workers to St. Vincent's in West Brighton, where he was listed in stable condition, according to Wagner and league officials ... The Seahawks are 5-1 vs. RMU at Spiro Center.